

It's Coming... New Family of EC Polymer Notes

Cleaner...Safer...Stronger

Coming Soon!
EC Polymer Banknotes
Cleaner, Safer, Stronger

EC Polymer Notes – Major Changes

- Portrait orientation
- Modernised images and landmarks
- Unique tactile feature on each note (for the blind and visually impaired)
- Holographic foil strip on $20, $50 and $100
- New design on $50
- New Signature – Governor, Timothy N. J. Antoine

Unique Tactile Feature

The front of each note has raised bumps at the top left-hand corner. The bumps form familiar shapes to assist blind/visually impaired individuals with identifying each note.

CIRCLE

X

RECTANGLE

TRIANGLE

SQUARE

Eastern Caribbean Central Bank

The EC polymer $5 note retains all the features of the current note. It depicts the Trafalgar Falls – Dominica and Admiral's House – Antigua and Barbuda

Eastern Caribbean Central Bank

The EC polymer $10 note retains all the features of the current note. It depicts the Admiralty Bay – St Vincent and the Grenadines and the Warspite – Anguilla

Eastern Caribbean Central Bank

The EC polymer $20 note retains all the features of the current note. It depicts the Government House – Montserrat and the Nutmeg – Grenada

Eastern Caribbean Central Bank

The EC polymer $50 note now features the image of the late Hon. Sir K Dwight Venner and the Brimstone Hill – St Kitts and Nevis. The Pitons – Saint Lucia are now depicted on the $100 note

Eastern Caribbean Central Bank

The EC polymer $100 note retains the image of Sir Arthur Lewis. The image of the ECCB building is replaced with the Pitons – Saint Lucia